A Crescent City erotic tale of passion and desire.

The nature of obsession. You find yourself doing things you wouldn't normally do but you do them anyway. Your mind gets so fixated on the illusion of what it wants, it loses sight on what is real.

In part one you met Kelly LeBlanc, a magazine Editor at Crescent City Publishing. A prideful, career driven, no nonsense breed of a woman. Kelly's obsession with love was Brad's greatest weapon. Kelly found out love and pride can't live in the same heart; one will surely die. Who says true love indeed conquers all? In the end, did love really win?

Kelly remains at the top of her game at Crescent City Publishing while her rocky relationship with Brad becomes yesterday's news. Relationship fiascos are nothing new to Kelly. She always manages to rise above relationship mishaps and put all her energy into her career. That was before she met the charismatic Jazz musician, Bradley Dubois. Brad has an enigmatic way of making Kelly go against everything she once believed about love, lust, and relationships. Kelly found herself questioning her very own heart. She observed herself putting up with shady behavior she normally wouldn't tolerate from any man. Following her heart led her astray. Kelly's the writer of the relationship column on the magazine website and now because of Brad, she has to eat every word she ever published. Kelly learns, when it comes to matters of the heart, never say never.

Sasha, a medical doctor at Tulane University is Kelly best friend from childhood. Sasha is totally different from Kelly. Sasha is a free spirit and she has no interest what's so ever in falling in love. Sasha's feisty personality and beauty, have all the men she encounters, eating out of the palm of her hands. Sasha believes, she has the vagina, so she gets to make the rules. Sasha acts like a lady but thinks like a man. She's only interested in sex and ménage trios with one of the doctors at the hospital she works with and his wife. The sexual tension between Dr Hottie, his wife and Sasha becomes Sasha's guilty pleasure and she becomes extremely greedy.

Todd, the owner of Crescent City Publishing, and quite a ladies' man, is Kelly's boss but also her friend. Todd has a problem with keeping his penis in his pants and staying faithful to his wife, Barbara. Todd always makes passes at Kelly in the office but also has slept with Sasha, Kelly's best friend. Todd and Kelly have a unique boss/friendship and jokes around a lot at the office until Todd crosses the line by inviting Brad to the New Year's Eve party after Kelly and him stop seeing each other.

Sometimes love comes at a high cost and somebody always ends up bankrupt paying for it.

All is fair in LOVE and HATE.
