This book is intended as a JOKE on all your staunch Republican Friends!!! That's right, between the pages of this tome, readers will find 69 blank pages. Because in reality, what is right with the modern Republican Party? Gift your friends a copy and await their reaction. Guaranteed conversation starter!

In The Grand Old Party: Everything Right with the Republican Party in the 21st Century, Mr. Stamper distills years of research and hundreds, if not thousands, of interviews to reveal the most comprehensive understanding of the startlingly effective governance afforded this great nation by the modern incarnation of the Republican Party. Fiercely frank and insightfully funny, Charles Stamper literally spells out everything the Party that traces its history to no less than Abraham Lincoln has done well on topics ranging from but not limited to: * balancing the budget * national defense * homeland security * national healthcare * entitlement reform In today's highly partisan environment this serves as a refreshing look at a few of the recent successes of our nations second most enduring major political party. That's right, between the pages of this tome, readers will find 69 blank pages. Because in reality, what is right with the modern Republican Party?
