Feathers (Volume 1) K D Peters

****This is a new revised edition. Thank you for reading my work****

Mia Renaldi finds her life changed forever one fateful Christmas Eve when her grandmother kicks her out of the house and sends her to live with her father up in Maryland. Coming to the small town of Madison, she tries to look at all of the good points as she begins trying to fit in completely at her home and at school. The Renaldis have money and status, and her father Michael is loving and caring. It's the life she's been praying for since she was a young child.

The only thing she doesn't count on is Sean Morrison.

Handsome and mysterious, Sean instantly draws Mia to him like a moth to a flame. Though warned repeatedly that he's dangerous by her family, she finds herself being pulled more and more towards the mystery that surrounds him. But as she gets closer to Sean, Mia finds herself drawn into a world she never would've suspected she was part of, and learns of a destiny she never would've imagined for her family...
