STARTING UP MY FIRST BUSINESS

(Kindle Edition)

From book:

Getting your business plan and strategies into place is something that most would-be owners like the sound of, but don't actually do. Yet, it's important to at least know your competitors, your marketing plan, your operational, and financial and management strategies. Most important, it's the way you will keep tabs on your business. Experts agree that there's a direct correlation between those who put their plan into writing and those who create good performance. Often, a corporate collapse is partly due to lack of focus and a deficiency in basic business management. The majority of businesses which go out of business in world, lack a business plan. So what are you waiting for? Follow these basics to become business-ready: Ideas and inspirations are great for a start-up. Now here's the rest
