The Lost Treasures of California - Map and Guide reveals 313 legends of lost treasure, an unprecedented anthology of California's treasure legends. Included with the guide book is a complete fold-out map of California (24 x 36 inches) that is indexed to the guide, allowing the entire state map to be viewed at a glance. This offers a perspective that can help research efforts, as connections and clusters emerge. It also happens to be an exceptionally beautiful map of California, perfect for pondering. The excellence achieved by Academia Maps® reflects state-of-the-art cartographic techniques, resulting in a map of superior quality with a high level of detail. Current cartography depicts the vicinities of locales that have been lost in time over decades and centuries, plotting them onto a current depiction of California's terrain, with modern roads and highways. The 6 x 9 inch spiral-bound guidebook contains regional maps of the state, indexed to the legends within each region. The convenient glove-compartment size makes the guidebook great to take on road trips as you explore the lost treasures in California's history.
