Class Act: Achievement Created Today, a staff development solution for school improvement, increases the capacity of classroom educators to assume their role as a one of the primary stakeholders in raising student achievement. Their efforts are focused on knowing, understanding and responding to: -the school's mission and vision; -state curriculum and assessment guidelines; and -effective engagement instructional strategies. Eight targeted components of school improvement are introduced in an engaging format mirroring the high-energy cognitively-demanding environment today's educators are accountable for creating. Each Act provides classroom practitioners with: -a case study to begin processing; -tools, including charts and surveys to -exercises to begin transforming current practices to meet the needs of a 21st learner.
