A hot menage romance perfect for fans of Maya Banks

Steve and Bryan had been together for five years now. Their love and passion for each other has always been a secret being the folks in town would most likely lynch them.

They know they can't hide out forever and now with another town dance approaching it forces the two to find a mail order bride to avoid further suspicion.

Now to find the right woman willing to go along with their plan will be the real challenge. When their mail order bride arrives everyone is nervous.

Sarah came from the big city looking for a fresh start. The ad she had answered for a mail order bride had excited her and scared her all at the same time. It was invigorating. When she laid eyes upon the two ranchers picking her up, invigorated turn to stimulated.

She felt it for both of them but which one was to be hers. She realized that had not been made clear in the ad.

Will she take the opportunity to be with both or force them to choose?
