I never realized how far I would go for love...until I met him. When I interviewed for a job at Kalin Davis's advertising firm, I didn't think I would interview with him personally. I sure didn't think I would spend a night at his beach home, lying naked in his bed with his arms around me. And I definitely didn't think I'd end up crouched behind a bar, clutching a gun, listening to the cold steps of a killer approach me. One betrayal leads to another, and in the end we're both questioning who we can trust...even each other.
