PREFACE: Dallas moves from Texas to stay with her brother and sister in law at the young age of 15 after their parents were in a tragic car accident that ended their lives. Having started at a new high school, Dallas meets Rick on her very first day. Although Dallas believes that Rick is just a prankster, she soon finds out that when their skin touches one another's, there is surge of energy passed throughout both of their bodies that no other has ever experienced. Five years later, engaged to be married, Tragic knocks on Dallas' door once again, killing Rick in a horrific car accident and leaving Dallas alone. Five years after that fateful day of losing her one true love, she finds out Charlie is one of the recipient's of the organ donations Rick had authorized to donate in the event of him loosing his life. Charlie seeks out Dallas because Rick comes to haunt Charlie in his dreams. Charlie and Dallas soon find out that they both have the same surge of energy that passed through her body when she was with Rick. Unsure if she can allow herself to move forward in the present, letting go of her past with Rick remains to be seen.
