Just Friends? K E Osborn

A talented young singer and actress, Australian born Katerina Barrett, decides to follow her dreams and move to the United States of America to attend AMDA College in Los Angeles, to further her music and acting career. On her orientation day a cocky, self absorbed and arrogant Will Sanders, catches her attention. Immediately she's drawn and she knows she should stay away from him and concentrate on her career – but, life is never that easy. The chemistry is undeniable and Kat doesn't want to let her guard down. When she gives herself to Will, she's left hurt when he confesses that he doesn't do the 'relationship thing'. Through a turn of fortunate events they are both chosen to play the lead roles in an up and coming new indie movie, the Nightwalker Series. Their relationship blossoms as does their fame, turning their world upside down and leaving them asking, are we 'just friends'?
