Letters From Santa (O Little Town of Christmas) (Volume 7) Becca Whitham

Army intelligence officer Alex Stevens has been trying to prove his father didn't desert during WWII so his mother can receive survivor benefits. He's followed every lead until it ran dry. Then Violet Poplovich, the daughter of another soldier who deserted at the same time as Alex's father, walks into his office with a check she thinks came from the army. But the army doesn't issue checks from the First National Bank of North Pole, Alaska. All Alex wants is the truth, and he wants Violet to help him find it. Violet doesn't want to believe her father's a deserter, and she certainly doesn't want to believe he's been sending cashier's checks for fifteen years without ever trying to contact her. Except maybe he has...disguised as Santa. When she receives some mysterious gifts, Violet is forced to consider that her father may be alive. Both of them are looking for the same man, and the only person who can help is Santa.
