Love is stronger than we can imagine.

Love is never impossible. But for Joselyn Westin, it's not probable. After the death of her grandmother, Joselyn feels lost in world that seems empty, till a cryptic message in one of her grandmother's favorite books changes everything.

Sometimes love happens in the most unexpected, incredible places. Jocelyn wakes up in London, during the Regency Era. But her knowledge of the time is poorly lacking, even with all the historical romances she's read. She quickly learns that life is the greatest teacher.

What Joselyn discovers is more than just history, it's a way of living, a way of loving and discovering that for love, nothing is impossible.

Especially when you find yourself "Living London."
