Second String (In Too Deep Book 3) Casey McMillin

Emily Roth gave her heart to Jeremy Salyer years ago. She was waiting patiently for Jeremy to return her affections while he was busy enjoying the fringe benefits of being a college football star. After a chance meeting with a swimmer named Ethan Erickson, she found herself faced with a choice between waiting for her childhood sweetheart or pursuing a new flame.

Ethan had money to burn and a bucket list that was begging for his attention. His sights were set on Olympic gold, and a relationship would only serve to slow him down. Emily's offer to be friends with benefits was just what he was looking for, until he realized it meant he'd have to compete for her attention.

Can Ethan convince Emily he's the only man she needs?

More importantly, is he capable of being that man?
