J.R.R. Tolkien, The Hobbit 1965 with Lion. Currently listed on another website for $261.95. This is a Ballantine first edition produced to go with the 1965 first official paperback edition of Lord of the Rings, but cover artist Barbara Remington mistakenly included a lion and emus which Professor Tolkien insisted be removed immediately because there is no lion or emus in the Hobbit (and he probably did not want the Hobbit confused with the Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe). The lion was airbrushed out of subsequent editions, making this version quite rare (a seller on another website is asking $261.95).
