Mellie: A Story of Vinyl and Candy is a dark, gritty story about a troubled woman struggling to overcome her past. But after years of battling with her demons, Melanie Woodward becomes convinced that she only has one option left. In a final manic induced attempt to grasp some control stolen from her by the illness, Mellie decides to write the story of her past in hopes of pinpointing how she ended up this way. Digging through her old journal entries and writings she recounts her slide into a realm of hard hitting beats filled with shimmering candy kids in the underground rave scene promoting peace through music, her descent into self-harm and drug addiction, and the escalating violence of her DJ boyfriend, Thomas Scalia. In writing her story, Mellie believes she will either finally make peace with her past, or she will accept the only peace for her is through the blade.
