The Key to Live Greatly: Release Your Natural Energy Everyday Tony Kelbrat

The nine books about finding your natural, intuitive divine standard or spark in the face of all the massive indoctrinating forces of the world trying to turn you into a superficial capitalist, pop culture wage slave then honoring who you really are (and should be because all you ever are and will be is your true nature covered over by the world's crap) by releasing most of your natural energy day after day to feel good and earn self-respect are as follows:

- Enlightenment 1. A Free Spirit's Search for Enlightenment
- Enlightenment 2. Release your Life-force with Gusto
- Enlightenment 3. Anatomy of the Soul
- Enlightenment 4. Joy is doing what is in your Soul
- Enlightenment 5. No Matter What, You're your True Nature
- Enlightenment 6. Burn the Fire in Your Spirit
- Enlightenment 7. Archetypes are Natural Life Scripts
- Enlightenment 8. Earn Self-Respect by Releasing Energy with Gusto
- Enlightenment 9. Get that Light Feeling by Burning Energy

"This is the true meaning of life; to live for something recognized by ourselves as a mighty cause. To be a force of nature rather than a feverish little clod of grievances and ailments complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy. I want to be totally used up when I die. For the harder I work doing what I love, the more I live. Life is no brief candle to me. It's a sort of splendid torch, its own justification and I want to make it burn as much as I can before handing it on to future generations."

George Bernard Shaw

I know nothing lasts because if I don't work hard to release my natural energy, I can go to depression within one day of self-betrayal. Tough as it sounds, the only way to happiness is to earn it through what you do. You can never stop. If you do, you end up like all them couch potatoes doin' nothin' intense in their lives and they ain't happy regardless of what phony face they put on for the world.

What is the most powerful force in the Universe? Some people would say God or sex.

I think the most powerful force you got is your spirit or Divine Seed given to you by whatever created you. What is it?

It's your essence or purity at birth.

What is the biggest regret of life?

It is that I did not become the person I could have been, I did not release all the power inside of me, I did not do what I really wanted to do with my time.

By five years old, if you're living in a family not always concerned with poverty, you will have had a chance to discover your soul or essence.

I knew what my purity was at five years old then I went to school and got brainwashed by the world.

Now my life is about staying close to my purity as a human being.

All I ask of living is that it has no change on me.

The happiest people are the ones who stay close to their spiritual purity by releasing most of their natural inspired, sexual and loving energy day after day.

Spiritual-esthetic wealth is two things:

How you manage to stay close to who you were born to be by nature. What was in your soul when you were born? Were you able to express that so far?

How do you release your natural energy day after day with gusto for the process?

Rise to meet your potential everyday.

I've seen people bright-eyed and bushy-tailed at 20 then I see them at 45 and say to myself they lost a hold of their natural spirits. They betrayed themselves by going out into the world, working some job that didn't inspire them. Little by little, day by day, they lost a hold of that natural beauty and strength they once had.

Be true to yourself everyday.

Release that natural energy everyday.

It is the only way you will get through life pure and unscathed.

Earn your self-respect and well-being by releasing most of your natural energy everyday.

The ideas of the world are fine for you to learn how to survive and for entertainment but you still have your own innate wisdom. That should be your main source of power.

Live one day at a time.
