Guided Comprehension in Action: Lessons for Grades 3-8 Mary Beth Allen

Written to complement Guided Comprehension: A Teaching Model for Grades 3-8, this book provides classroom-tested instructional plans and resources for teaching reading comprehension strategies within a variety of themes, such as mystery, authors, poetry, biography, and fantasy. Each theme-based chapter presents the components for implementing the Guided Comprehension Model: a theme description, theme-based plan for Guided Comprehension, Guided Comprehension planning forms and lessons, teacher commentaries and think-alouds, samples of student work, and theme-based resources including teaching ideas, related texts, websites, performance extension across the curriculum, and culminating activities. A final chapter suggests even more themes and resources, and provides practical forms for planning lessons based on the Model.
