Reconnecting the City: The Historic Urban Landscape Approach and the Future of Urban Heritage

Historic Urban Landscape is a new approach to urban heritage management, promoted by UNESCO, and currently one of the most debated issues in the international preservation community. However, few conservation practitioners have a clear understanding of what it entails, and more importantly, what it can achieve.

- Examples drawn from urban heritage sites worldwide – from Timbuktu to Liverpool
- Richly illustrated with colour photographs
- Addresses key issues and best practice for urban conservation
