Home is where your heart breaks.

Luka Dawson knows better than to hope for anything. Raised by her three older brothers after their mother died, the Dawson clan has a reputation as a wild bunch, not worth a damn to the rest of the town. Luka's already given up her dreams for the sake of survival, but there's one dream she just can't shake -- Reese Mathers, the boy she loved and lost when he joined the Marines.

After five years as a soldier, Reese is back home and facing his own demons. His abusive father, who ordered him to leave "that Dawson girl" before he enlisted, is locked away dying in a hospital -- but now Reese knows he has the same potential for darkness inside him. And being with Luka is a risk he just can't take...even if it kills him to stay away.

Heat level: Steamy **Standalone book, no cliffhangers**
