Steampunk: Nightmare City: Part One: First in a series of steampunk books Jack Conner

"Jack Conner can write! Great characters are found in each chapter, and nicely developed . . . Gritty scenes, with plenty of violence, and excitement. I read Part I in a single night and Part II in two nights. Loved every minute of the story!"

--Phillip Tomasso,
Author of the Vaccination Trilogy

When beautiful young thief Katya goes on the run from a loan shark in the terrifying steampunk city of Lavorgna, the last thing she expects is to be plunged into an epic adventure that will determine the fate of the world, but that's just what happens in "Nightmare City", a steampunk-ish / urban fantasy adventure by Jack Conner set in the beloved world of The Atomic Sea series.

Lavorgna is a city of fog and shadows, undead servants and soaring zeppelins, where mad scientists prowl the alleys, mob bosses strive for power and the dreaded Guild of Alchemists holds the land in an iron grip, while beneath the city lies a network of black caverns embedded with the ruins of an ancient race. Known as the Elders, they long ago worshipped Lovecraftian horrors.

To survive and save the world from an unimaginable fate, Katya must navigate all these dangers and more. On the run, she seeks out the local mob boss Ravic, only to learn that he's embroiled in a vicious gang war with his rival Loqrin Mars, a conflict that has supernatural overtones. A new horror has gripped the city, with mysterious creatures called haunts killing people by the dozen, and Ravic believes Loqrin Mars is behind it. If Katya wants Ravic's help, she must find out what Loqrin is up to -- and stop him.

To do this, Katya must use all her thieving skills and cunning, because if she doesn't succeed, the whole world will suffer an awful fate.

??? No pressure, Kat.
