Some stories are fairy tales. This isn't one of those stories ...

When friendly and outgoing Selena Sanders decides to defer college and start living her life, she isn't looking for trouble, but she finds it anyway when she befriends a coworker. Sam Rawlings is a shy and timid young wife trapped in an abusive marriage, and Selena tries to help where she can, even when it puts her in harm's way.

Sam Rawlings knows the meaning of stupid. At age eighteen, she married a man she'd only known for three months, and she did it to please her mother. When he started mistreating her, she tried to leave him and buckled when her family told her to make it work because marriage is forever. She wants out, but fear keeps her in line.

Playboy Kyle Connolly has relocated to Rockford to be close to his mother while she deals with illness, but there's more to Kyle than meets the eye, including his unorthodox relationship with his wealthy family and his odd friendship with the local sex purveyor.

Kyle and Selena become friends and find themselves in an alliance against Sam's vile spouse and his creepy friends, but Sam's sadistic husband doesn't give up easy.

Difficult mothers, a sexually abusive husband and his creepy friends, a diffident boyfriend, a would-be rapist, a sex club owner, a lecherous restaurateur and a gun-toting mystery man are pitted against guarded Sam and spirited Selena. Can Selena and Sam survive the predators in their lives, overcome their love-gone-wrong relationships and find real love?
